

Welcome to Middlesex University, Hendon

Middlesex University is dedicated to unlocking potential – in our students, through our research and within businesses. We teach 35,000 students on Middlesex courses in London, Dubai, and Mauritius, as well as with partners across the world.

Our expertise is wide ranging, from engineering, information, health and social sciences, to business, arts and education - and we're national leaders in work based learning.

Getting to Hendon Campus

Middlesex University is well served by public transport. There are a number of ways to travel to Hendon Campus.

Accessibility

Hendon Central Underground station and Middlesex University Hendon campus are both fully accessible.

We advise that you arrive via the main entrance. Steps, pathways and building entrances are displayed on the campus map. Alternative routes and entrances are clearly signposted on site.

By Underground

Hendon station (Northern Line, Edgware branch) is only 30 minutes away from Central London.

The walk from the station to Hendon Campus takes approximately 10 minutes.

Turn right out of the station, walk up the road to the main junction and then turn right into The Burroughs. As you approach the campus, the Hendon Town Hall and Library are located on the left. Cross the road here and continue past the fire station and you will shortly arrive at the main entrance.
