

Clive R Boddy

Professor of Leadership and Organisation Behaviour

My research interests (past and current)

- Toxic leadership: corporate psychopaths, machiavellians, narcissists. Their influence on business and society.
- Relationship marketing: student retention and attrition
- Business research techniques: projective and enabling techniques, focus group discussions, ethnographic research, nominal group technique, market research

Areas for future collaboration

Corporate psychopaths and:

Fraud, the global financial crisis, workplace bullying and conflict, job satisfaction, counterproductive work behaviour, toxic followership, toxic leadership, stress, employee well-being, corporate social responsibility, workload, withdrawal (absenteeism and staff turnover), corporate longevity, corporate performance and productivity, customer service, illegal work practices, corporate chaos and trust.

Funding streams used successfully

- Wave 1 of Corporate Psychopaths Research: Research funding from Curtin University of Technology
- Wave 2: Research funding from Nottingham Trent University
- Wave 3: Research funding currently being sought

Key publications/outputs

Book: Corporate Psychopaths Organisational Destroyers

- Journal of Business Ethics
- The Corporate Psychopaths Theory of the Global Financial Crisis
- Corporate Psychopaths, Bullying and Unfair Supervision in the Workplace
- The Influence of Corporate Psychopaths on Corporate Social Responsibility and Organizational Commitment to Employees
- Journal of Public Affairs
- Corporate Psychopaths and Organisational Type
- Leaders without Ethics in Global Business: Corporate Psychopaths
- Management Services
- Corporate Psychopaths and Productivity
- Management Decision
- The Dark Side of Management Decisions: Organisational Psychopaths

Contact

C.Boddy@mdx.ac.uk
020 841 13019
