Dear Ms Lee

Your request for information received on 5 December 2018 has been dealt with under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You asked:

I would like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act.

Please can you provide all or any of the following information for the academic year 2017-18, or for the latest annual reporting period:

- 1) The number of reported cases of bullying and/or harassment received by the institution where the victim or alleged victim was a member of staff and the perpetrator(s) or alleged perpetrator(s) was a student(s). This should also include cases where the incident or alleged incident was not directly reported to the institution, but came to your attention through other means (e.g. social media or news reports) and was subsequently investigated or acted upon by the institution.
- 2) The number of reported cases of bullying and/or harassment investigated by the institution where the victim or alleged victim was a member of staff and the perpetrator(s) or alleged perpetrator(s) was a student(s).
- 3) The number of cases of the type described at point (2) where the institution upheld the complaint against the student(s).

University Response

We did not receive any reports of bullying and/or harassment where the victim or alleged victim was a member of staff and the perpetrator(s) or alleged perpetrator(s) was a student(s) during the time period you have requested, so we do not hold the information you have requested.

I trust this satisfies your request sufficiently. Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, you have the right to complain about the University's response to your request for information. If you have such a complaint, you may contact Mr David Maplas, Director of Student Affairs, Middlesex

University, Hendon campus, London NW4 4BT, tel: 020 8411 5830, d.malpas@mdx.ac.uk within 40 days of the date of this letter for a review of the University's decision. If you remain unsatisfied with the outcome of that complaint, you may seek further recourse by lodging an appeal with the Information Commissioner.

Yours sincerely

John Gilchrist
