12. Programme structure (levels, modules, credits and progression requirements)

12.1 Overall structure of the programme

The MA Criminology is studied either over two years part-time or full-time for a period of one year. All the work is at Level 7, postgraduate level. The study period falls within the Middlesex University academic year. The programme is divided into study units called modules.

All students have to take modules:

- CRM4700 Theory and Research in Criminology
- CRM4750 Crime, Conflict and Control
- CRM4780 Dissertation in Criminology (60 credits)

Aside from the dissertation, each of these modules has a credit rating of 30 credits at Level 7. Both full-time and part-time students must take these modules.

14. Information about assessment regulations

The Department of Criminology and Sociology adheres to the Middlesex University Guide and Regulations on all assessment regulations.

15. Placement opportunities, requirements and support (if applicable)

N/A

16. Future careers (if applicable)

The MA Criminology will enhance career prospects in the general area of crime and criminal justice including policing, community safety, youth and adult offender management, crime analysis, applied and academic criminological research and work with drug-users.

17. Particular support for learning (if applicable)

All new students are offered an induction tour of the Library and student support (LSS) and further workshops in, for example, use of the library catalogue, searching databases and various software packages such as MS Word are offered by LSS staff and/or the Learning Development Unit (LDU). These sessions are highlighted to new students in particular, but advice, information and support is available on an ongoing basis.

The library holds copies of core texts and most of the recommended reading on MA criminology modules. Copies of key texts out of print are kept in the Photocopy Collection and available through the LSS helpdesk. Material that is not in stock but required for individual research/dissertations can be obtained via the British Library on completion of a request form. This process normally takes about two weeks. The UK Libraries Plus Scheme also provides access to local participating libraries. Students can apply to join this scheme at the LSS Enquiries desk.

Post-graduate students also have access to a Post-graduate reading/computer room within the LSS.

In addition, our students are encouraged to take full advantage of University-level and student union learning support schemes and facilities. The Learning Development Unit (LDU) is highly recommended at induction. In the formative weeks of the programme, especially for overseas students and for those entering or returning to HE after a considerable period of time out of education.

21. Other information

Staff and students on the MA Criminology at Middlesex are part of a network of criminologists and sociologists throughout Europe who meet together on a regular basis at European Common Study Programme sessions. These comprise lectures and seminars on a specific theme chosen by the host university. Students who choose to participate in sessions have the opportunity to engage in debate and discussion with colleagues. Students who take the optional module CRM4730 will have the opportunity to present a paper to one of these sessions as part of their assessment.

Please note programme specifications provide a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve if s/he takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information about the programme can be found in the rest of your programme handbook and the university regulations.
