9. Criteria for admission to the programme

For year one admission, Middlesex University general entry requirements apply, including GCSE's (grade A to C / score 9 to 4) (or equivalent) in mathematics and English language. Applicants whose first language is not English are required to achieve a minimum score of 6.0 in IELTS overall (with a minimum of 5.5 in each component) or an equivalent qualification recognised by Middlesex University.

Specific programme entry requirements are 112 UCAS points or equivalent. We accredit prior experiential learning and welcome mature applicants with suitable life skills and work experience. Students not meeting the programme entry requirements may be eligible to join at year zero (level 3), the foundation year.

For entry with advance standing to year 2 (or final year), candidates must have achieved both 120 credits at level four (or 240 credits with 120 credits at level five) and must have successfully met the relevant learning outcome and syllabus requirements of the programme.

The equivalence of qualifications from outside the UK will be determined according to NARIC guidelines.

10. Aims of the programme

The programme aims to:

- provide students with knowledge and understanding of organisations, their management and the business environment;
- develop critical and analytical problem-solving skills and apply these in a business context;
- prepare students for a career in business and management or further study;

12. Programme structure (levels, modules, credits and progression requirements)
12. 1 Overall structure of the programme
The programme is studied over three years full time, three years with two summer placements (thin sandwich) or four years if the option of a 12 months placement is taken in the third year (thick sandwich). Part time students study the programme over a maximum of six years. The programme is divided into study units called modules and modules are either 15 or 30 credits. The academic provision of the University is based on credit accumulation. Students will accumulate credit points by passing modules in order to gain the award of the University. To gain a BA (Hons) degree title a student must gain 360 credit points (480 if on thick or thin sandwich) of which 120 must be at level six, i.e. year 3. Full time students will study modules totalling 120 credits each year while part time students will take between 60 to 90 credits per year. There are five compulsory modules in the first year (level 4). These modules are designed to give a solid grounding in business and management and bring all students to a standard level of competence to pursue further study in the subject.

In the second year (level 5) students will study five compulsory modules designed to enhance and broaden their understanding of the core aspects of business and management. Students will also choose one marketing optional 30 credit module.

At the end of the second year, full time students may opt to take a year's placement before returning to complete the final year of study. In the final year (year 3 – level 6) students will study four compulsory modules designed to advance skills and knowledge appropriate to graduate level. Students will also choose 45-credit optional modules.

The structures of the different modes are as follows:

15. Placement opportunities, requirements and support

A 12-month placement is offered at the end of year two (Thick Sandwich mode).

Alternatively, students can opt for two smaller placements between their years of study (one between year 1 and year 2; and one between year 2 and year 3) (Thin Sandwich Mode).

A dedicated Employability Advisor helps in the search for an employer who will provide the student with an appropriate placement. The advisor will also provide students with guidance and support in preparation for, as well as during and after the placement.

The placement forms the basis for an assessed report.

At the start of the placement students are allocated an individual supervisor who provides support and advice for the duration of the project.

16. Future careers (if applicable)

Business management (Marketing) is a broad degree that allows the students to develop a wide range of business related knowledge and transferable skills with a specialism in Marketing.

Graduates from this programme may enter a wide range of positions in both business and Marketing, including marketing assistants, brand managers, sales and PR professionals.

The University Employability Centre will be able to give further guidance:
